Brenda Davenport leads the global quality assurance team at Rimini Street. In this role, she develops and implements overarching strategies for all product lines the company supports, including PeopleSoft, JD Edwards, Oracle E-Business Suite, SAP and RSITE. She ensures that her team is aligned with Rimini Street’s global product delivery organization as well as corporate strategies, standards and objectives.

Ms. Davenport has 20 years’ experience managing, implementing, testing and supporting PeopleSoft projects for private and public sector clients. She is known for delivering results on time and within budget. She joined Rimini Street in 2008 as a senior quality assurance engineer, taking on positions of increasing responsibility since then. Prior to Rimini Street, Ms. Davenport served as a QA manager and PeopleSoft engineer at SAP. She also served as a project coordinator and lead functional business analyst at Sierra Systems Group, a consulting firm specializing in systems integration and managed services. While at Sierra Systems, Ms. Davenport managed or worked on major projects for the several agencies at the Texas state government. Earlier in her career, she worked as a senior accounting coordinator and lead PeopleSoft HRMS subject matter expert at the Lower Colorado River Authority, an organization that provides energy, water and community services in Texas.

Ms. Davenport holds a bachelor’s degree in business administration with a specialization in Management from Southwest Texas State University.
