

Oracle Database trends may seem puzzling...

68%

of respondents say they don't stay current with the latest Oracle Database releases.

97%

of respondents feel cost is one of their top challenges.

41%

of respondents are actively reducing their Oracle Database footprint

73%

of respondents don't feel they're getting enough valuable database enhancements; more than 1/4 report not receiving any.

...but when putting the pieces together, the right recommendations just fall into place.

Assess the ROI of your annual Oracle Database maintenance and support fees.

Use independent, third-party support to continue using your current, dependable Oracle Database for more financial control.

Make sure you follow your own strategic IT roadmap, not a vendor-dictated path.

Assess and remediate the risk of unsupported database instances.
