VP, Special Projects, Office of the CEO

Rimini Street

Rachel Woodson serves as the Vice President of Special Projects in the Office of the CEO. She joined Rimini Street from Rackspace Technology, where over a tenure of 17 years she had the opportunity to take on a cross section of roles in a company that grew from small start-up all the way to going public, twice. Her most recent position was Partnership Strategy and Marketing Alliances where she was responsible for a portfolio of technology partners to drive joint-GTM campaigns into the global regions. Prior to that, she held roles as Chief of Staff in both Marketing and Product, has over a decade of experience driving operational excellence in cross-functional program management, and operated in service delivery and sales positions in both EMEA and NAMER.
